Speaker – Desseri Beasley—Death of a loved one Staff Administrator—Michigan Financial Companies/John Hancock

All of us, sooner or later, will be faced with the death of a very dear loved one. For most of the world, it is a time of deep despair, with no hope of ever seeing the person again. But what about faith in God during these times? Can His presence and grace and comfort make a difference? What hope does the story of the Lord Jesus conquering death at Easter give? Come for lunch on Thursday, April 14th to hear Desseri Beasley tell her story of losing her husband this past year after a long illness. She'll be sharing the way her faith in the Lord Jesus deeply sustained her, and the comfort and hope God's presence and promises brought in a very dark time. Desseri is a Staff Administrator for Michigan Financial Companies/John Hancock. She has four grown children and four grandchildren. You will be touched hearing her story.
